Pickup: Day 2, 4:00 PM from Delhi ISBT

Drop: Day 9, 10:00 am at Delhi ISBT

Any transfers requested outside the scheduled timings will incur additional charges.

● Zaskar Road Trip – Contingency Disclaimer

Please note that Zaskar is a remote and high-altitude region with limited infrastructure and basic facilities. The region is largely accessible through narrow mountain roads that are highly vulnerable to natural disruptions such as heavy snowfall, avalanches, landslides, or sudden weather changes.

In the event of such disruptions, the group may be required to halt the journey at the point of obstruction. The duration of these delays is uncertain and completely beyond anyone's control. Such situations may lead to modifications in the planned itinerary, including missing scheduled sightseeing, rerouting, or being unable to reach certain destinations as per the original schedule.

In extreme circumstances, due to limited accommodation options in remote villages — especially during peak travel periods — participants may need to stay overnight in basic homestays, nearby settlements, or, if necessary, in vehicles until the route reopens.

Trekkers United will make every possible effort to handle the situation responsibly and ensure the group's safety and comfort. However, we shall not be held liable for delays, itinerary changes, or missed experiences resulting from unforeseen circumstances beyond our control.

● Backpacking Trip — Not a Luxury Tour

This is a true backpacking experience, designed for adventure seekers who love raw, authentic travel. Expect decent comfort, not luxury.

Zaskar is an offbeat and rugged destination, so food and accommodation will be simple & basic — that's the charm of the journey and the essence of real backpacking.

● Flight Information & Booking Policy

Trekkers United packages include land arrangements only. Flight booking is the responsibility of the client (those who are booking Ex Chandigarh Package). If needed, we can help you with flight options or book tickets on your behalf.
